

P1

1997

Name: Unknown

Age: Approx. 5

Sex: F

Birthplace: El Salv.

Reported Location: Media
Aguas, Oaxaca, México

Cause of Death: La Bestia

P2

2003

Name: Eva García Suazo

Age: 20+

Sex: F

Birthplace: Honduras

Reported Location: Tierra
Blanca, Veracruz, México

P3

2007

Name: José Mejía

Age: 23

Sex: M

Birthplace: Honduras

Reported Location: Sonora
and/or Chihuahua, México
Disappeared

P4

2008

Unknown
Ixtepect, Oaxaca, México

P5

2009

Name: Jose C. Guardado

Age: 20+

Sex: M

Birthplace: Honduras

Reported Location: Oaxaca
México

P6

2010

Name: Maribel

Age: 20+

Sex: F

Birthplace: Nicaragua

Reported Location: Nogales,
México

P7

2011

Name: Alicia Rivera

Age: 20+

Sex: F

Birthplace: El Salv.

Reported Location: Sonora,
México

P8

2013-4

Name: Ana

Age: 15

Sex: F

Birthplace: Guatemala

Reported Location: Saltillo,
México
Reported Kidnapping

Jose C. Guardado decided not to continue his journey after being robbed on the first train he boarded. He preferred to return to Honduras from Oaxaca, Mexico.

Source: Documentary

In 2010, Maribel decided to stay in Nogales, México, living with her new partner. She is now seeking to resolve her legal status in the country so she can bring her two children, who remain in Nicaragua.

Source: Documentary

2010- Alicia Rivera, a migrant from El Salvador, worked for a bit in Nogales as a nanny to raise money to pay for a coyote to cross the border. Last known update – she safely crossed the Sonoran Desert, from Sonora, Mexico, with 50 other migrants, and lives in California

Source: Documentary

Ana, a 15-year-old migrant from Guatemala, was released after being kidnapped in 2013 by the cartel in 2014. She is currently staying in a migrant shelter in Saltillo.

In 1997, Media Aguas, a five-year-old child, fell between freight train boxcars while being handed off to her mother.

Source: Documentary

Eva Garcia Suazo was in an accident along with a Honduran migrant in Tierra Blanca, Veracruz, in 2003, while trying to climb onto the freight train.

She now lives with her three children in the "Jesús El Buen Pastor" shelter in Tapachula. The other migrant did not survive the injuries.

Source: Documentary

José Mejia, a Honduran migrant reported missing by his mother, was last seen in 2007 in Sonora and/or Chihuahua, México with his two friends. Nothing more is known as the family continues searching.

“...the dimensions of these horrors or diminished to points of geography... Father Solalinde put it well: this land is a cemetery for the nameless.” (37,61)

Source: The Beast - Ó. Martinez

P9

2014

Name: Chino

Age: 13

Sex: M

Birthplace: Guatemala

Reported Location:

Lecheria, México, México

Cause of Death: La Bestia

P10

2015

Name: Unknown

Age: 65

Sex: M

Birthplace: Unknown

Reported Location:

Tapachula, Chiapas, México

Cause of Death: Heart
Attack

P11

2018

Name: Damián

Age: 14

Sex: M

Birthplace: Honduras

Reported Location:

Guadalajara, México

P12

2018

Name: Unknown

Age: Unknown

Sex: F

Birthplace: Unknown

Reported Location:

Guadalajara, México

Cause of Death: The Cartel

P13

2019

Name: Óscar Alberto
Martinez Ramirez and
Valeria Ramirez

Age: 25

Sex: M

Birthplace: El Salv.

Reported Location: Rio

Grande/ Río Bravo

Cause of Death: Drowning

P14

2025

Name: Carlos Gutiérrez

Age: 42

Sex: M

Birthplace: Nicaragua

Reported Location: Juárez,
México

P15

2010

Tamaulipas, México

P16

2011

San Fernando,
Tamaulipas, México

In the summer of 2019, a photo of a deceased Salvadoran father and daughter, Óscar Alberto Martínez Ramírez and Valeria Ramirez, found in the Rio Grande would become prolific across the media.

Source: News

2025 - Carlos Gutiérrez, a 42-year-old Nicaraguan migrant, after being detained and held in custody, was released at the Paso Del Norte bridge crossing into Ciudad Juárez.

“SUBJECT: Zetas massacre 72 migrants in Tamaulipas...” - U.S. Consul General in Matamoros, Mexico, Michael Barkin, summarizes events that occurred around the 8/22/2010.

Source: Gov Doc.

“SUBJECT: TAMAULIPAS' MASS GRAVES: BODY COUNT REACHES 145” - U.S. Consul General in Matamoros, Mexico, Michael Barkin, reports on the discovery of 36 grave sites containing 145 bodies in the San Fernando area of Mexico.

Source: Gov Doc.

Chino, a 13-year-old migrant from Guatemala, fell asleep while riding the freight train and slipped off. Chino did not survive the injuries and was buried in Lecheria, México, México, by a Catholic shelter for migrants in approximately 2014.

Source: YA Novel

In 2015, a 65-year-old male migrant with his approximately 13-year-old granddaughter passed away from a heart attack while at a migrant shelter in Tapachula, Chiapas, México.

Source: adapted from YA Novel

After escaping the cartel the first time while on top of the freight trains and being assaulted the second time, 14-year-old Damián turned himself in to La Migra in the hopes of returning to Guatemala from Guadalajara, México.

Source: Memoir

A female migrant, in 2018, while riding on top of the freight train, was reported to have been shot by the cartel in Guadalajara, México.

Source: Memoir